Dear

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your email dated 7th June 2021 – sent to the communications team, requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) regarding admissions.

Note, all FOI requests should be sent to: foi@uhnm.nhs.uk

The University Hospitals of North Midlands Trust is committed to the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

However, the NHS is facing unprecedented challenges relating to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic at the current time. Understandably, our resources have been diverted to support our front-line colleagues who are working tremendously hard to provide care for our patients, and to those in need of our services.

We strive to be transparent and to work with an open culture. But at this time, whilst care of our patients and the safety of our staff takes precedent, it is likely that responses to some requests for information will be delayed. We apologise for this position in advance, and will endeavour to provide you with as much information as we can, as soon as we are able.

The Information Commissioners Office has recognised the current situation in the NHS

On 8th June 2021- received into our office 9th June you sent the following via email:

'Ref number 141-2122

I am emailing to request the hospital admission numbers from the years 2018 up to and including 2021'

This is fir my own research and I'm not working for any company or organisation.

I understand that understand that under the freedom if information act I am entitled to this information

As of 1st November 2014 University Hospitals of North Midlands NHS Trust (UHNM) manages two hospital sites – Royal Stoke University Hospital, and County Hospital (Stafford). Therefore the response below is for the two sites combined from that date where appropriate.
