Dear

I am writing in response to your emails dated 18th May 2020 requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act (2000) regarding IMT structure chart.

On our acknowledgment we added the following statement:

The University Hospitals of North Midlands Trust is committed to the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

However, the NHS is facing unprecedented challenges relating to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic at the current time. Understandably, our resources have been diverted to support our front-line colleagues who are working tremendously hard to provide care for our patients, and to those in need of our services.

We strive to be transparent and to work with an open culture. But at this time, whilst care of our patients and the safety of our staff takes precedent, it is likely that responses to some requests for information will be delayed. We apologise for this position in advance, and will endeavour to provide you with as much information as we can, as soon as we are able.

The Information Commissioners Office has recognised the current situation in the NHS.

On the same day we contacted you via email as we had received to identical requests from yourself but from different emails, we asked if you had meant to send the same request form different addresses.

You replied via email: "I asked for this on Whatdotheyknow.com before I found the FOI email address".

UHNM contacted you via email to inform you that under section 12 of the FOI Act we were aggregating these requests on IMT structure charts

Your reference number is 042-2021 for both requests

The section 12 exemption states:

The authority can combine related requests received within a period of 60 consecutive days from:

- The same person or
- People who appear to be acting in concert or in pursuance of a campaign.

As of 1st November 2014 University Hospitals of North Midlands NHS Trust (UHNM) manages two hospital sites – Royal Stoke University Hospital, and County Hospital (Stafford). Therefore the response below is for the two sites combined from that date where appropriate.

Q1 #1 Could you please supply an up to date IT org chart outlining the names of all of the individuals in job functions please under the Freedom of Information Act (2000).

#2 I was wondering if you could please share the latest IT org chart with names of individuals within those roles under the Freedom of Information Act (2000).

A1 Please refer to the attached document.
